

Vice President of Finance

Mother Teresa said, "It's not how much we give, but how much love we put into giving." As the vice president of finance you'd use your gifts and skills to steward financial resources and advance Bible translation work around the world.

Today over 170 million people still don't have the Bible translated into their languages! Wycliffe USA believes the Word of God can transform lives when people hear it in their own language or form, and we urgently need you to join the team!

Job Location: Orlando, FL

You must be legally authorized to work in the United States as per U.S. employment laws.

Compensation: The range for this position is $114,000 - $132,000 yearly.*

You'll have an impact every day. One day you'll lead the finance departments in daily operations and ensure financial integrity in every area. The next day you would also participate in operational and executive leadership conversations.

This job might be for you if...

- You're passionate about stewarding God-given financial resources to further His Kingdom.
- You're an organized, self-directed and highly-effective leader.
- You're eager to use your experience in managing and designing processes and projects in a cross-cultural organization.
- You live out the conviction of "work flows through relationship" by passionately "loving God and loving people" through word and deed.
- You have excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- You're comfortable participating in collaborative discussions with executive leadership to ensure faithful allocation of resources.
- You have a solid knowledge base of business, financial and accounting reporting principles.
- You have an advanced degree and/or certification plus seven or more years of experience, or an equivalent combination of education, training and/or experience.
- You demonstrate the desire and ability to support corporate biblical and religious goals and participate in regular work-related spiritual activities without reservation (Spiritual Bona Fide Occupational Qualification).

It's a bonus if...

- You have previous leadership experience in a global faith-based, non-profit organization.

- You have previous experience with planned giving.

*It is not typical for an individual to be hired at or near the top of the range for the role. Actual pay rate will be based on various factors such as qualifications, skills and experience, required training, licensure and/or certifications, budget, and location, if applicable. Additionally, the range for this position is based upon and considers Wycliffe's non-profit, ministry environment.
