Transformation

Be transformed by the renewing of your mind.

Romans 12:2

The Continual Operation

But when the kindness and the love of God our Savior toward man appeared, not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, whom He poured out on us abundantly through Jesus Christ our Savior, that having been justified by His grace we should become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Titus 3:5

Biblical Meditation

Heart of Man

Meditation and Rhema

Rhema means a spoken word / revelation knowledge.

Faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word (rhema) of God.

Romans 10:17

Biblical Meditation

Biblical meditation is characterized more by reflecting, than by studying, more by listening than by thinking.

Holy Spirit comes and work within us:
teaching, cleansing, comforting and reproofing.

Holy Spirit engages our spirit, soul and body to make the passage of scripture we are meditating on come alive.

Meditation Process

You read the verse with your sight, one of your senses.

Then you think about the verse with your conscious mind.

Then you meditate on the verse over and over with your conscious mind.

This process creates an environment where Holy Spirit gives revelation knowledge.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart.
